3. Is the due date for the Custodial Supplies Bid still March 25, 2020?

Yes. The bid opening will take place as scheduled. You may submit your bid to the location specified any time prior to the cutoff date. In order to maintain the health and safety of everyone, the bid opening will be held virtually. You will be receiving a Google Hangout meeting invite. This will provide access to view the opening of the bids.

4. We'd like to know if we can waive the notarized pages when we send in the bid, as we are being informed in NY to avoid going out as much as possible. If we should be awarded any items, we would have the pages notarized at that time.

Yes, please submit the bid. The District will reach out, if any items are awarded so that the pages can be notarized then.
